HISTORY.

Baylor University was chartered by the Republic of Texas on the 13th of February, 1845. It was located by the Texas Baptist Educational Society at Independence, Washington county, then on the greatest thoroughfare of Texas, and near the centre of population. For many years it was the great educational centre of Texas. Its trustees were prudent and liberal men and did all in their power in selecting competent teachers and providing buildings. But by a fatal blunder of the citizens, the towns of Washington and Independence were left off the railroads and became inaccessible. By the entire change of the old system of labor and the influx into Southern Texas of foreigners, the character of the population was changed. Dr. Burleson and the faculty foreseeing this removed to Waco and inaugurated Waco University in 1861. The patronage of the University at Independence was diminished from 250 students in 1861, to 32 in 1886, under direction of Dr. Andrews, a young and vigorous man. The removal to some healthy point in Central Texas was deemed indispensable.

Waco University was chartered 1861, and has gradually increased from thirty-two students in 1861, to 705 in 1890, clearly demonstrating the suitableness of Waco for a great University. After the fullest and freest discussion in the State Convention and General Association, a special committee of eighty assembled by appointment at Temple and formally consolidated the two Universities with their faculties and trustees, hereafter to be known as Baylor University, at Waco. Steps were immediately taken to raise $110,000 for buildings and $500,000 for endowment.

A new and beautiful location of 23½ acres, including Oak Lawn and Mingle Wood Park, has been secured.

Rev. Henry L. Graves, D. D., LL. D., was president from 1846 to 1851.

Rev. Rufus C. Burleson, D. D., LL. D., was president of Baylor University from 1851 to 1861 at Independence, and president of Waco University from 1861 to 1887, and of Baylor at Waco, from 1887 to 1891.

Rev. G. W. Baines, president from 1861 to 1862.

Rev. W. Carey Crane, D. D., LL. D., president from 1862 to 1885.

Rev. Reddin Andrews, D. D., president from 1885 to 1886.

The grand central building and female boarding hall of Baylor University are now completed and occupied.

The old buildings of Waco University are used as a boarding hall for young men, so that we are now prepared to accommodate 800 students.

Baylor University opened in 1851 with three professors and 57 students; in 1890 has enrolled twenty-six professors and teachers and 705 students.

BACHELOR OF LITERATURE.

The course of study looking to the degree of Bachelor of Literature shall be the same as that required for Bachelor of Arts, except:

(1) Instead of the ancient languages prescribed, two modern languages may be substituted, such as French, Spanish or German.

(2) For the prescribed course of Mathematics in Sophomore, Junior and Senior years may be substituted: (a) One year in Advanced American History, and that part of the history of other nations most nearly touching American History, particular emphasis being given to the principles of government in the United States, e. g., the constitution, distribution and limits of various powers, elections, inter-state commerce, revenues, postal regulations, diplomatic and consular relations, etc. (b) One year in American Classics. (c) One year in Greek and Latin College Course, in English, (Wilkinson's), Preparatory Greek and Latin, course in English having been completed in Preparatory Department.

Text Books prescribed by the faculty.

Tuition fees for this degree not to exceed those for Bachelor of Arts

DEGREES.

A. B.

Young gentlemen completing the full course in Latin, Greek, Mathematics, Science, Belles Lettres, History, Ancient and Modern, and Political Economy, receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

B. P.

Young gentlemen completing the full A. B. course, except Greek and Latin, beyond Cæsar, receive the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy.

M. A.

Young ladies completing the full Latin course and Mathematics through Trigonometry, and the full course of Science, Belles Lettres, Literature and History, receive the degree of Maid of Arts.

M. P.

Young ladies who complete the last course, Latin excepted, receive the degree of Maid of Philosophy.

A. M. AND M. P. H.

Regular male graduates pursuing any one of the learned professions for three years, on the recommendation of the faculty, receive the Gradum Secundum, or degree of Master of Arts or Master of Philosophy on delivery of their Master's oration at an Annual Commencement.

M. A. AND M. P. H.

All female graduates pursuing diligently a course of literary studies for three years, may receive the degree of Mistress of Arts and Mistress of Philosophy on returning and reading an essay, and being duly recommended by the faculty.

D. D., LL. D., PH. D.

The ancient and honorable degrees of Doctor of Divinity, Doctor of Laws and Doctor of Philosophy may be conferred on persons eminent for their learning and purity of life on the recommendation of the faculty.

CERTIFICATES OF PROFICIENCY

May be granted by the faculty to any proficient in any special branch when desired.

MORAL AND INTELLECTUAL PHILOSOPHY

AND

EVIDENCES OF CHRISTIANITY.

DR. BURLESON.

Progress is the glorious characteristic of this age. Yet this very characteristic begets in superficial reasoners a tendency to scepticism and universal anarchy, threatening the very foundations of all government and civilization.

The instruction received in this department is to demonstrate that the Bible and Christian morality are founded on the eternal rock of truth and sound philosophy, and are inseparably connected with all real progress and human happiness.

NORMAL DEPARTMENT.

PROF. J. C. LATTIMORE.

This is now one of the permanent features of the University work. The work consists in a series of discussions of the great underlying principles upon which all correct methods of school management depend, followed by a presentation of such methods as have been tried and found good.

Man, in his three-fold nature, is studied that those who become teachers may not be ignorant of child nature—the delicate organism whose growth and culture they are to direct.

This is followed by a careful study of the duties which devolve upon those who assume the responsibilities of teaching.

Then comes the study of proper means of bringing the being to be taught, and the matter to be presented into the most healthful and fruitful relations to each other.

The course continues through five months, and all who have been regularly admitted into the Preparatory or Collegiate Departments are entitled to its privileges without further charge.

This department is under the direction of a teacher who was trained at one of the oldest and best Normals in this country, and has had nine years' experience as assistant, principal and superintendent of public schools. He has taught in every grade from the district school of one room to the high-school and college, and has always endeavored to separate the truly meritorious from the superficial and worthless; and will spare no pains to make this department especially valuable to those who are to become instructors of youth.

CLASSICAL EDUCATION.

PROF. W. H. LONG, SEN.

In our experience, we have found so few young men who have made any preparation in Greek when they come to enter college, that we think it best to begin the Freshman year with Xenophon's Anabasis and continue the Greek to the Senior year.

This makes our Greek Course as full as those schools which require Greek in the Freshman and Sophomore years and make it elective in the Junior and Senior years.

GREEK COURSE.

We firmly believe that the old college curriculum which requires a thorough course in Latin, Greek, Pure Mathematics, the fundamental branches of the Natural Sciences, and Belles Lettres, will prepare the mind for the various professions and occupations of life better than the modern elective course. After the liberal course has been completed, then let technical education be sought in special schools, either separate from or attached to the Universities.

THE LATIN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE.

PROF. THOMPSON.

In this department the aim is to secure mental discipline by a critical study of the Latin language. Special attention is paid to the rhetorical as well as the grammatical structure of the language, and when the course shall have been completed, it is expected that the student will be well versed in Roman Literature and Civilization.

A thorough knowledge of the grammatical rules in Collar & Daniell's Beginner's Latin Book, (or the equivalent), and the ability to turn into Latin the English sentences therein, will be expected of every one who hopes to work with the Freshman Class. He must also show a fair knowledge of the first three books of Cæsar, and stand a thorough examination in the first, on the rules of syntax. During the Freshman year particular attention is paid to grammatical work. Beginning with the Sophomore year, and thence throughout the course, more attention is given to the style of the author's read, and to the life and institutions of the Romans.

The Roman method of pronunciation as given in Allen & Greenough's Grammar is used in the University.

Pupils desiring to begin Latin and to be thoroughly qualified to enter the Freshman class, are advised to come at once and enter our Preparatory Department.

SCIENTIFIC DEPARTMENT.

PROF. W. H. LONG, JR.

This department has a regular laboratory room, fitted up with desks, apparatus and chemicals for the use of pupils.

Each pupil in Advanced Chemistry and Laboratory work is required to experiment from one to three hours every day.

Each pupil has a special desk and is responsible for all damage done to the same.

Chemical fee per term $5.

Apparatus for experiments in Physics is furnished free of charge.

Our course in Botany includes a thorough drill in the principles; also in the practical field work, examining, analizing, tracing and mounting specimens of our most important Texas plants.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

This department is under the direction of Mrs. L. M. Twells, a teacher of long experience in the management of music classes. The methods used are thorough and modern. Pupils entering this department are carefully examined and assigned to the grade best suited to their ability. This insures rapid improvement and is most favorable to success.

PIANO.

This branch consists of five grades, including selected studies from Faelton, Petersilea, Mason, Kohler, Czerny, Heller, Beethoven and Bach.

VOICE CULTURE.

Special care is given to the cultivation and development of the voice. Pupils are thoroughly instructed in the proper use and care of the vocal organs. The methods used are Marchesi,, Panseron, Penofka and Concone.

VIOLIN AND GUITAR.

A competent Professor is engaged for pupils on string instruments.

HARMONY.

This important branch of music is taught in classes of four, or in private lessons, as pupils may prefer. Theory classes free to each member of the music class.

THE LONE STAR SCHOOL OF ORATORY.

This school offers a complete course in every department of the science and art of EXPRESSION.

Six years of successful work in connection with Baylor University has demonstrated the fact that no more thorough and advanced course is offered by any school.

The Analytic or Rush method of voice culture is used, while in gesture the Synthetic method is taught, together with all that is practical of the Delsarte system.

TIME REQUIRED.

To complete the entire course in Elocution and Oratory requires three years of forty weeks each, two and one-half hours per day.

A student may, by devoting five hours per day to the work, complete the course in two years.

A student may, by devoting his entire time to the work, complete the entire course in one year.

Graduation from the one year course as well as from the others, must depend upon the ability of the student on entering and upon his ability to pass the required examinations at the close of the course.

GRADUATION AND DEGREES.

A student who completes the entire course to the satisfaction of the Director of the School of Oratory, and passes the examination, will, on the payment of $5, receive a diploma with the degree of B. O. Provided:

1. No student shall receive a diploma without having devoted the required time to the study.

2. No student shall receive a diploma who has not a fair knowledge of advanced English grammar, Rhetoric and English Literature.

3. No student shall receive a diploma without having prepared not fewer than ten recitations during the last year of his course.

These recitations must be ready for public delivery on the fourth Friday of each school month, and the selection and rendition must be such as will meet the approval of the Director.

4. No student shall receive a diploma who shall at any time during his course deliver any recitation upon any occasion without the consent of the Director.

5. No student shall receive a diploma who does not make a record for high moral character.

EXPENSES.

Time sufficient to complete the course, in two or three years.

1. If the student is in any other department of the University, per year $10.

2. If the student is in no other department of the University, per year $25.

Time sufficient to complete the course in one year, per year $50.

A student attempting to complete the course in one year will be admitted to any of the classes in the Belles Lettres Department of the University without extra charge Diploma and graduation fee $5.

PRIZES AND MEDALS.

At the close of each school year there will be a public contest for a number of valuable prizes and medals. Among other rules governing the contest are the following, which will be strictly adhered to:

THE CHAMPIONSHIP MEDAL.

1. Any person of good moral character, who has at any time been a member of the School of Oratory for at least five months, may contest for the championship, even though several months or even years have elapsed since said person was a member of the school.

2. Any person desiring to contest for the championship must notify the Director of the School of Oratory at least four weeks preceeding the date of the contest, at the same time giving title of recitation on which he will contest. (Also see rule 5 below).

OTHER MEDALS AND PRIZES.

3. No person shall contest for any of the prizes other than the championship, unless he shall have been a member of the School of Oratory for at least four months immediately preceding the contest.

4. No person shall contest for any of the medals or prizes unless he shall have recited before the public not fewer than four times during his last term as student preceding the contest.

5. No student shall use any recitation in a contest for any of the prizes if said recitation has been prepared by said student for any other occasion than the particular one on which it is to be used.

EXTRA PRIZES.

6. No medals or prizes shall be awarded on the occasion of the annual contest except the regular list of prizes prepared by the Director at least four weeks preceding the night of the contest.

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF ART.

Few persons know of the advantages that are presented in Baylor University in the department devoted to art. The instruction imparted by the principal is not superficial but thorough, setting forth the basis of all true art education, and an enlightened knowledge of the rudiments, theory and practical application of perspective—its necessity to a perfect understanding of both linear and æreal. Then art, as it is understood by the close and accurate approach to nature, both in form and color, is taught with a faithfulness that resembles life, and every effort in this department is made by the principal and the pupil to "Hold, as 't were, the mirror up to nature."

Landscape painting with the diversity in this particular, results in beautiful effects of tinting, blending and harmonizing of colors, lights and shades. Nor is this alone the great feature of this department; portraiture, which ranks among the highest order of art, is thoroughly taught, painting in pastelle, drawing and finishing in crayon, water colors, painting placques, banners, panels, minochromatic and everything appertaining to art is taught. The result of a very complete education in art can only be attested by the very many pupils who are now making a competent living and earning a handsome compensation for their abors. Pupils who have gone from this department are constantly writing the principal in expressions of gratitude for the able and thorough instruction they have received.

The principal is prepared to execute portraits from life. Old pictures enlarged.

ADMISSION AND WITHDRAWAL.

Every student on the day of his arrival in Waco must report to the President for matriculation and assignment of studies. No student shall be matriculated unless he presents to the President suitable testimonials of good moral character; and if he comes from another college he must also present a certificate of good standing and honorable dismission from the institution he left.

Students can enter the Primary and Preparatory Departments at any age or advancement, but the earliest age at which it will be advantageous for a student to enter the collegiate classes is, if a male, the close of his 16th year, and if a female, at the close of her 14th year. But the President is authorized to matriculate a student at an earlier age, provided sufficient peculiar reason exists and the parent or guardian places him or her under moral and satisfactory supervision to himself.

The form of matriculation is as follows: A student who wishes to enter upon the collegiate course, either regular or elective, must first present his testimonials of good character to the President, who, if satisfied, will admit him as a candidate for examination and direct him to the officers by whom he will be examined. If the examination be satisfactory the student will then procure and read a copy of the laws of the University, and sign his name on the University register as a solemn and deliberate declaration of his full intention to obey all the laws so long as he shall remain a member of it; and not to withdraw from the University till the close of the session, except from absolute necessity. No student shall be matriculated and assigned to class until his entire tuition for the term in which he enters is paid, or satisfactorily arranged with our Treasurer. As soon as a student is matriculated the President shall furnish the parent or guardian a copy of the laws of the University and also the studies to which he has been assigned.

CANDIDATES FOR THE COLLEGE DEPARTMENT.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class in the Male Department, must sustain a satisfactory examination of the following books, viz: Orthography, Reading, Composition, English Grammar, Latin and Greek Reader, Nepos, Higher Arithmetic, Elementary Algebra, Ancient and Modern Geography.

FRESHMAN CLASS—FEMALE DEPARTMENT.

Geography, Reading, Modern and Ancient Geography, English Grammar and Composition, History of the United States, Written Arithmetic, Elementary Algebra and Ancient and Modern History.

ELECTIVE COURSE.

Students who wish to pursue an elective course of studies can do so by the request of their parents; or if of suitable age, by their own request; but they will be required to recite with the regular classes, in similar studies. They can have all the privileges of regular students, and access to the library and lecture rooms, and are subject to the laws of the University.

WITHDRAWAL.

Permission of withdrawal shall not be granted except for ill health, inability to pursue college duties or some unavoidable necessity, or by the written request of the parent or guardian. It is earnestly requested that no parent will withdraw his son or daughter just before the examination for trivial cause, such withdrawals are highly disreputable and injurious to the student. Any student who shall leave the University without permission shall be suspended ipso facto.

DISCIPLINE AND BY-LAWS.

1. The discipline of the University is always as nearly parental as possible. The University is intended to be a great literary family, bound together by love, mutual interests and kind offices. Appeals will always be made first to the tenderest, noblest impulses of the heart. Severer remedies will only be used when these fail. A special Officer of the Day is appointed daily, whose duty it shall be to report to the President every disorder and violation of the law, and in the discharge of his duty he shall receive all the respect due any officer of the University. To promote mental and moral greatness and restrain vice, the folfowing by-laws will be strictly enforced:

2. Every teacher is as much an officer of discipline as instruction, and will use his utmost diligence to suppress all disorders, to excite enthusiasm among his students, and to attend all examinations and reviews. No other duties must at any time interfere with his duties in the University.

3. Each recitation will continue one hour — unless otherwise ordered by the faculty — a portion of which shall be occupied in reviewing the recitations of the previous day.

4. Immediately after the daily recitation of the student the professor shall affix a numerical mark to his name, designating the value of the recitation. For a perfect recitation the number shall be five; for an imperfect one, a smaller number ; and for a failure, zero. If the deficiency has been satisfactorily explained before the commencement of the recitation—that is, if it has arisen from circumstance over which the student has no control—no other mark shall be added. If the explanation is unsatisfactory, or if no explanation be offered, it shall incur an additional demerit mark of from two to five.

5. Disturbances in the chapel, or lecture room, or in any part of the College premises, shall incur a demerit of from two to ten.

6. Absence at the time of calling the roll, unless previous permission be granted, or the reason why that permission could not be requested, be rendered previous to 12 m. of the subsequent day, shall incur a demerit of from two to ten.

7. Absence from rooms after dark and before 9 p. m. a demerit of five ; after 9 p. m. a demerit of ten.

8. Any student who shall ring the University bell, not directed to do so by the proper officer, shall be suspended or otherwise punished.

9. Any student guilty of playing cards, or any game of hazard, shall be suspended or otherwise severely punished.

10. Any student who shall oppose or speak against the decision and established rules of the faculty in presence of other students, shall be publicly reprimanded, and on the second offense be suspended or otherwise punished.

11. Any professor or teacher may excuse a student from his room or recitation for a sufficient cause, but not from the campus during college hours. To obtain such an excuse the student must present a written request to the President and receive his written permission.

12. Any student who shall be guilty of licentiousness, using ardent spirits, or visiting drinking establishments, shall be suspended or otherwise punished.

13. No student shall be guilty of nocturnal disorders or revelings, nor become connected with a dancing school, society, or social club without the approval of the faculty; and for a violation of this rule such a student shall be suspended or otherwise punished.

14. Any student who shall absent himself from the University without permission of his parent, guardian or the faculty, shall be suspended ipso facto.

15. No suspended student shall come within the college campus, but shall retire to such place for such time as shall be prescribed by the faculty; and for the violation of this rule he shall be liable to expulsion and indictment before the courts.

16. Any student who shall associate with a suspended or expelled student shall be subject to expulsion.

17. Each student is required to attend Sabbath-school and also some religious worship twice on the Sabbath.

18. When the demerits of any student, for any term amount to twenty, it shall be the duty of the president to inform his parent or guardian of the fact; and when his demerits amount to fifty, to dismiss him from the University, or otherwise punish him, and inform his parent or guardian of the fact.

19. No student shall be allowed to graduate who receives one hundred demerits during his college course.

20. Each student shall pursue diligently the course of study prescribed for him by the faculty, and failing to do so, he shall first be affectionately admonished by the faculty, and, unless reclaimed, shall be suspended from the institution or otherwise punished.

21. Each student shall recite at least fifteen and not more than twenty lessons a week in the Literary Department. But a student who is taking two or more lessons in the Ornamental Department shall not recite more than fifteen lessons a week in the Literary Department.

22. If a student is unable from ill health to pursue his studies, he shall immediately request leave of absence. Until such leave be obtained he is held responsible for the discharge of his duties. When such leave of absence is granted, the president shall immediately notify the parent or guardian of the fact.

23. Any student guilty of using profane or obscene language, shall be publicy reprimanded, and for the third offense shall be suspended or otherwise punished.

24. No student shall carry about his person or keep fire-arms or other dangerous weapons; and if found guilty shall be suspended or otherwise punished.

25. Any student who shall be too late to recitation shall receive two demerits.

26. Any student who shall be guilty of talking in school shall receive two demerits; in recitation, four.

27. Any student who shall leave the University during study hours without permission, shall receive four demerits; and should he leave after permission has been refused, he shall be suspended.

28. For leaving seat or desk during study hours, two demerits.

29. For leaving room during study hours, three demerits.

30. For lounging on streets or about stores or college building, four demerits.

31. No young lady of the institution, boarder or day student, shall receive the attention or escort of young men. A violation of this rule will incur a heavy penalty, at the discretion of the faculty. Books and beaux never go together.

32. Young men having sisters or other female relatives in the boarding house, can call on them Saturdays at from 2 to 4 p. m., but at no other time, except by special permission from the president, matron or governess.

33. Young men must not visit or in any way intrude upon the chapel, study hall, recitation rooms or campus of the young ladies. A violation of this rule will subject the offender to suspension or public reprimand by the president.

34. The laws of the University extend over the whole period, from the commencement to the close of the term, no portion of the week being exempt from them.

35. Any student who behaves improperly at church, or commits any act inconsistent with the deportment of a gentleman or lady, shall first be affectionately admonished by the president, and unless reclaimed he shall request the parent or guardian to withdraw him from the institution.

36. Every student shall be responsible for damage committed by him upon the furniture or other property of the institution ; and for any such damage he shall pay such fine as may be assessed by the faculty.

37. No student who is a minor shall open any account without the written permission of his parent or guardian, and every student is strictly required to make a monthly report to his parent or guardian of all his expenses.

38. Before a diploma is granted, degree conferred, or honorable dismissal can be given, the trustees and faculty must be satisfied that all debts and dues incurred while at the University have been paid or satisfactorily arranged.

BOARDING HOUSES.

Maggie Houston Hall.—There has been so much irregularity and injury to students in respect to boarding houses, the trustees, in consultation with the faculty, have established the following laws and regulations:

1. Male students may board either in Maggie Houston Hall or in good private families near the University. The President will keep a list of approved boarding houses and no student will be allowed to board in any family who will not report to the President all violations of law when called upon, or where there are persons likely to lead them astray.

2. Hereafter no young man will be received into Maggie Houston Hall except on the best evidence of moral character, and also on a pledge to aid the faculty in preserving the property, rules and regulations of the University.

This hall is called in honor of the illustrious lady, Mrs. Gen. Sam Houston, so eminent for her devotion to the Baptist cause and especially ministerial education. By the plan adopted in the colleges at Georgetown, Ky., and Richmond, Va., our young preachers and worthy young men have been comfortably boarded for $6.50 per month, not including washing, lights, fuel and room rent. The success of this hall has been eminently satisfactory; perfect order and good feeling have prevailed. Maggie Houston Hall is under the special supervision of Prof. W. H. Long and lady, assisted by Prof. J. S. Tanner and Prof. W. H. Long, Jr.

Georgia Burleson Hall.—All young ladies not living in Waco are required to board in Georgia Burleson Hall, a magnificent building with seventy-five rooms, erected and furnished for young ladies. Young ladies, however, having near relations in Waco, may board with them provided they will promise to see all the rules of the University faithfully observed, and report to the President every violation of law.

The advantages of boarding in the institution must be patent to all; the principal are:

1. Better accommodations and at cheaper rates than can be found elsewhere.

2. Systematic hours of study and recreation and protection against interruption of every kind.

3. The watchful care and counsel of the lady teachers in all the details of general deportment and social etiquette. No private family can afford equal facilities for study and general improvement.

The young ladies are required to study two hours at night and one hour before breakfast in the morning, in the study hall, under the direction of the governess. The chapel, parlors, dining rooms and halls will be lighted free. All damage to the furniture in the rooms, except necessary wear and tear, will be assessed upon the occupants in which said damage occurs.

The boarding hall is lighted with gas and furnished with water by the Gas and Water companies. Every room is neatly painted and plastered and carpeted and kept comfortable at all times.

Parents are earnestly requested not to send bundles or boxes of edibles to their daughters, as the keeper of the house undertakes to furnish good and sufficient board. Some of the most fatal cases of sickness have originated from mistaken fondness of parents. Hereafter no student will be permitted to receive such boxes. If sent, they must be directed to the Matron, to be used under her direction.

THINGS TO BE FURNISHED BY YOUNG LADIES.

Each young lady will furnish her own towels, soap, combs, brushes, pillow slips, sheets, two blankets and napkins.

The fare will at all times be adapted to students, plain, nutritious and abundant.

No room will be reserved for a pupil longer than one week from the opening of the session. Medical attention will be under the direction of the President. Correspondence will be under the direction and inspection of the governess. No letter or note shall be sent to or from the boarding house without the approval of the governess. Any student sending or carrying communications, except through the presiding officer, will be liable to suspension. Each young lady must attend Sunday school and church under the supervision of the governess or some of the female teachers, unless she is excused by the President or governess. To obtain an excuse, the young lady must present a written application to the governess, stating why she cannot attend Sunday school and church. If she fails to make a written application for an excuse, then she will make a written explanation why she did not, to the governess, before 12 o'clock Monday, otherwise she shall receive not less than five nor more than ten demerits. Young ladies slightly unwell but too unwell to attend public exercises will assemble in the study hall and devote church hours to reading the Bible and receiving religious instruction.

No student under twelve years of age will be admitted into the boarding department except by special agreement.

The home life of the boarding department for the young ladies is very nearly all that parents could desire. Four of the female teachers board with the young ladies, and will do all in their power to aid the Matron in making a happy home for the young ladies. Our success in this respect may be known from the fact that some of our most influential citizens, who have elegant homes, prefer to have their daughters board in the Boarding Hall to remaining at home.

Each student will be charged for all damages done on building and furniture.

Every article belonging to a student must be distinctly marked with her full name.

DRESS FOR FEMALE DEPARTMENT.

It is especially desired that the dress of the students shall be simple and inexpensive. Simplicity saves time and thought, and money, which, to a scholar, are precious for higher uses.

The young ladies of Baylor University will be required in the future to dress in uniform, which will be as follows: For spring and summer, white must be worn. It is especially desirable to have two white dresses—one heavy pique and one lawn—made plain. Hats purchased and trimmed in Waco. No jewelry worn, except a simple breast-pin at any time. If young ladies bring jewelry from home or purchase jewelry here, it must be marked and deposited with the governess or matron.

Winter costumes must be black. One dress will be necessary—made fashionably, but not trimmed with silk or satin, but plain. This uniform is required on all puplic occasions, at church, examinations, promenading, etc. For everyday wear students will use none but plain dresses. Extravagance is forbidden at all times in every way. Passion for dress is as ruinous to a young lady's progress in study as drunkenness or gambling is to a young man. And one extravagant young lady will demoralize a dozen others. A passion for dress among girls is as contagious as small-pox. We want no young lady in Baylor University who wastes her time on dress and demoralizes others, hence, any young lady violating our rules for dress will be promptly suspended. Extravagant display is a blighting curse on our country, and the seeds are often sown in a boarding school by the mistaken tenderness of parents and against the protest of all good teachers. Each student must be provided with an umbrella, thick shoes and India-rubber over-shoes and slippers.

To secure entire uniformity and the greatest cheapness, the uniform should be purchased and made in Waco. Can be made at home if parents prefer, but if made at home the above rule must be strictly complied with. No deviation will be allowed in the future. Some young ladies have, we are ashamed to say, evaded the law of uniform, bringing what they called "old finery" from home to wear every day. This must cease in the future. Old silk and satin, as well as new, will be forbidden.

We find prescribing a plain uniform for Sunday and public occasions has not lessened the foolish passion for dressing and its inevitable and sinful wasting of time and money. Some of our young ladies, and even some who are scarcely able to pay their board bills, dress fine enough every day for a party. To crush this monster evil we are compelled to adopt the following uniform for every-day wear. Some parents, to gratify a runious passion of the age, claim that it interferes with their personal liberity. To such we kindly suggest that if they want their daughters to waste their time and money we have not a word to say; but if they propose to send them here to demoralize and run crazy forty or fifty young ladies, whose parents want them to study and not to waste money, they are trampling on our rights. And, besides, they can keep their daughter at home where she will learn just as much, if they want her to squander money and craze her brain about dress and foolish display.

The uniform for every-day will be black checked calico and a plain, white apron and linen collar. No ribbon of any shade or description will be worn. Every young lady must have a sun-bonnet to be worn at all times, except when walking on the streets.

Parlor boarders will be subject to same rules of dress and mingling in society, except on special occasions, in the parlor as other students.
